

The Scholars' League

The Scholars' League is an erudite camp of scholars, sages, wizards, and the like who have come to the Agate Coast seeking knowledge rather than treasure. Their careful documentation of the local environment and ecology has enabled them to travel further into the peninsula than any other organization, save perhaps the Order of the Sacred Earth.

Key Individuals

- Named
 - Marian - Gnome lady in silver robes with poofy hair and big glasses. Historian of oral nomadic traditions.
 - Winnifred - Human man in blue robes, gave us rough details of the camp.
 - Henrith Palan - Eldery dwarf in cleric robes. Adheres to Simreth, Day Pantheon Aspect of Strength.
 - Saffron Notwise - Male halfling, historian of ancient history.
- Unnamed
 - Old straw-blond haired elf lady, librarian of Antiquities.

Key Locations

- Discipline of Antiquities - Blue/Red

- 'Catalog of Magical Items & Their Uses'
 - 'Encyclopedia Savols'
- Discipline of Religious History - Green/Gold
 - Librarian directed Redimir to find Henrith Palan.
- Discipline of Military History - Red/Gold
- Discipline of Cartography - Silver
- Discipline of Alchemy - Orange
- Discipline of Ancient History - Red/Brown
- Discipline of General History - Forest Green/Brown
- Discipline of Mathematics - Lavender
- Discipline of Wizardry - Black
- Discipline of Architecture - Dark Purple/Silver
- Discipline of Practical Skills (Engineering) - Lime Green
- Administration - Blue/Pink (White robes)
- Central Tent - Lecture Hall
 - Redimir attended an ancient history lecture given by Saffron Notwise.

Notes

- Smells like parchment.
- Copy paper is freely available nearly everywhere.
- Tents and robes are color-coded by discipline.
- Passes are renewed by setting a meeting with the secretary for review of a report on your associated research.
- Maintains a contract with the Shining Swords for camp defense.
 - Shining Swords are behind schedule on moving into the Black Fortress and are defaulting on contracts with the League.